

Name _____ Date _____

Adverb Worksheet

Adverbs of time, place, and manner modify the verb. Ask about the verb, when? How often? (time), where? (place) how? (manner).

1. Our soccer game was played yesterday. _____
2. Sometimes, my family goes to the movies. _____
3. My friends and I played outside in the snow. _____
4. The people talked quietly at the hospital. _____
5. Tomorrow, the students will have a show in the gym. _____
6. Occasionally, my aunt and uncle will visit us from Florida. _____
7. Joey fell down and broke his wrist. _____
8. Put your games away _____. (time)
9. The children sat _____ (place) and watched TV.
10. The speaker spoke _____ (manner) at the meeting.

Adverbs of degree answer the question how much? or how little?. It describes a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

11. The extremely tall basketball player blocked the shot. Modifies what part of speech? _____
12. The surgeon did the operations very carefully. Modifies what part of speech? _____
13. Bob nearly broke his arm in the fall. Modifies what part of speech? _____
14. Sammy was _____ able to reach that top shelf.

Adverbs of affirmation or negation tells whether a statement in true or false.

15. My father is positively the best coach my team has ever had. _____
16. We never play that school in basketball. _____
17. You will undoubtedly win that writing contest. _____
18. I would _____ like to go see that movie. (affirmation)
19. The truck driver can _____ find that building. (negation)

Write a sentence with an adverb of time, place, or manner.

Write a sentence with an adverb of degree.

Write a sentence with an adverb of affirmation.
